

TWO-STAGE LOCKING

Narrow window security device for outward opening windows and awning windows.

Unauthorised entry into your home is made more difficult with this additional security lock for your windows with narrow frame sashes.

The security locks in two stages and has an ABUS Plus cylinder. After assembly, it can withstand a pressure of over 700 kilograms. The additional security lock is SBSC certified according to SS 3620:2010 class C.

Technologies

- SBSC certified to meet class C standards according to the SS3620:2010 standard
- Pressure resistance of over 700 kg
- Two step locking: presence and deadlocking function
- Locks without key
- Includes two keys and installation materials
- Open and closed positions of the lock can be detected visually
- Easy installation, no drilling template required (integrated)
- Special compact design: Lock casing is only 28 mm wide
- ABUS Plus cylinder

Operation and use

- Window lock for outward-opening windows, awning windows and, where appropriate, attic windows

Variants

- Colour: white
- Three box packed versions keyed alike
- One blister version keyed different

Technical data - FTS16 white

Locking type	key
Security Level Home Security	10
Weight	351 g
Window type	Outward opening window, Skylight
alarm function	No
colour	white
EAN	4003318805202

Technical drawing

