

---

10-year battery life

Smoke alarm for buildings and caravans with a battery lifetime of up to ten years.

Be warned in good time in the event of a fire: Protect yourself and your family and install smoke detectors. Our RWM140 has a battery lifetime of up to ten years. In the event of smoke development, an 85 decibel alarm tone sounds. The detector has been awarded by the KRIWAN test centre.

---

Technologies

- Certified with the KRIWAN test institute's Q Label
- 3V lithium battery (permanently installed)
- Battery lasts 10 years
- Alarm volume: 85 dB
- Muting option for approx. 10 minutes
- Regular self-testing with automatic error warning
- Low-battery warning sound
- Operating temperature: 0° C to + 45° C
- Large test button
- Theft protection

Operation and use

- For installation in bedrooms, nurseries, halls, etc.
- Also suitable for recreational vehicles (e.g. mobile homes)

-
- Function should be tested every four weeks
-

Technical data - RWM140

|                                 |                               |
|---------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| Battery – Permanently installed | Yes                           |
| Battery – Type                  | with fixed 3V lithium battery |
| Weight                          | 147 g                         |
| colour                          | pure white                    |
| EAN                             | 4003318771811                 |