

ROBUST, SOLID, LIGHTWEIGHT

Protect your items using our 54 TITALIUM™ padlock for enhanced security.

Our TITALIUM™ padlock 54 is designed to offer excellent security for various items such as valuable boxes, lockers, or toolboxes, effectively protecting them from theft. Its solid TITALIUM™ special aluminum lock body ensures a lightweight yet durable construction. Additionally, the hardened steel shackle enhances the lock's security, making it highly resistant to attacks, including those with bolt cutters or crowbars.

Technologies

- Solid lock body made from TITALIUM™ aluminium alloy - higher security, less weight
